SCRIPTURE FOR THE WEEK- The Lord of History-"The Lord will bring to light hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts." (1 Cor. 4:5)

THE LORD'S SUPPER IS JOYFULLY RECEIVED

HERE TODAY: At the altar, our Lord Jesus Christ delivers His true body and true blood into our mouths. This gift of His body and blood, given in, with, and under bread and wine, forgives sins, strengthens our faith, binds us in communion to our Lord, and unites us in communion with each other as One People: forgiven. In this is peace, life and salvation. (Mat. 26:26-28) All communicant members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and those Lutheran Churches in declared altar and pulpit fellowship with us, have publicly confessed this sacred gift and its blessings, and so are encouraged to commune. Other guests wishing to join our confession in this gift and all the gifts of Christ are asked to speak with the pastor or elders. During the time of vacancy for all those taking Common Cup please extend your hand out so that you will not be missed during distribution. (The clear individual cups are white wine & the other individual cups are grape juice.)

ALTAR FLOWERS: Today's altar flowers are given to the glory of God by Larry & Daphna Shook & family in loving memory of Mark Sprehe, who went to his eternal home on February 7. We thank them for this gift.

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES – “And Simon answered, ‘Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.’” Luke 5:5 Peter's words show both exasperation and trust. He's tired. He tried his best and failed. But he is still ready to trust the Lord's word – and act on it. Our stewardship is also a matter of trusting the Lord's word ... and acting on it.

Life Quotes: Our fear of our own unclean lips (Isaiah 6:5) and slow tongues can make us mute about marginalized lives. That's why the merciful Maker has touched our tongues (Isaiah 6:7) with His transformative Word and placed His life-giving power upon our lips. We need not doubt that even out of our mouths the Spirit of our Father speaks a wisdom no adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. (www.lutheransforlife.org)
